Brett Healy, President, Maclver Institute for Public Policy

“Restoring Election Integrity in Wisconsin”

Brett Healy is President of the John K. Maclver Institute for Public Policy. Brett appears every week on media channels in Milwaukee, Green Bay, Sheboygan, Wausau and Madison fighting for economic freedom, personal liberty and limited government. Maclver's work has been covered by The Hill, Fox News, The Wall Street Journal, Forbes and every mainstream media outlet in the state. The Maclver Institute has won numerous awards through the years including the Citizen Openness Award from the Wisconsin Freedom of Information Council and the Spark Freedom Trendsetter award. He will point out what happened in last Fall's election and what we can do about it.
