Jeremy Thiesfeldt

Tim Ramthun

Topic: “Difference-Makers”

Jeremy Thiesfeldt is a former teacher from Fond du Lac, who is currently the Chairman of the Education Committee in the Wisconsin Assembly. He brings an educator’s perspective, along with common sense to help make a difference in our state. Tim Ramthun is a businessman from Kewaskum, Wisconsin, who is also on the Education Committee in the Assembly, as well as Vice-President of the Kewaskum School Board. He brings a common-sense business perspective to the education committee. They will discuss the current hot buttons in state government, such as opposition to Governor Ever’s emergency orders. They will also discuss the negative consequences of public schools who shut down in-person classroom education. Questions will follow the presentations.

All are invited!
